Jesus tells us “God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved” (John 3:17). The message of the Bible is never against people, but for them. Its admonitions “are written, that ye might believe, and that believing ye might have life” (John 20:31). Sometimes its message cuts across long-standing traditions and established religious systems. Error must be pointed out, and warnings given. But the intent is never to embarrass or condemn, but to heal.

In the Light of God's Word...

I understand that the beast of Revelation 13:1-10 and the little horn of Daniel 7 are the same power.

I understand that that power held supremacy in the world for hundreds of years, warring against God and His people. I understand that that power, claiming the right to change God's law, instituted Sunday observance.
