Acts 2:17 _____

15. How does God give messages to His prophets?

Numbers 12:6 _____

NOTE: The natural possession of keen insight or the gaining of knowledge by study does not constitute the gift of prophecy. Prophecy is when God speaks directly to His chosen messenger through a vision or dream, giving specific information, which the prophet had no other way of obtaining. The prophet is not the source of the information he reveals, but simply the channel through which God speaks.

16. He that is now called a prophet was beforetime called a what?

1 Samuel 9:9 _____

17. What prophet and what seer wrote books that are not in our Bible?

1 Chronicles 29:29 _____

NOTE: From the above text it is clear that a prophet's writings do not have to be in the Bible in order for that prophet to be inspired. When Ahab disregarded the counsel of the prophet Micaiah (who never wrote a single word of the Bible) he suffered the consequences for disobedience just as if it had been Isaiah or Jeremiah who had given the warning (1 Kings 22). When the Lord inspires a prophet, whether the message serves only to meet a specific need at a specific time, or whether it is canonized in the Scriptures for people in all ages, the degree of inspiration is the same. And the messages of all true prophets of God, whether they are Bible writers or not, will be in perfect harmony with the written Scriptures, by which all things must be tested.

18. What two vital roles did the gift of prophecy play in the experience of ancient Israel?

Hosea 12:13 _____

2 Chronicles 20:20 _____

In the Light of God's Word...

I understand that God planned for these gifts to be present in His church until the end of time.

I am aware that the gift of prophecy has indeed been manifested in the church in these last days.
